

I am a professor of journalism at Eastern Washington University and have thirty years experience in journalism. I cannot believe what I am witnessing. The Federal Commission Commission is about to change American history without a trace of popular support. Changing rules on television stations in this way will be a historic mistake which will not be lost in the muddle and will not be forgotten. Delay this vote until it can be properly discussed!